

Item Navigation

Change of Variables Transforms a Nonlinear to a Linear Equation

Consider the nonlinear differential equation $dx/dt = x(1 - x)$. By defining $z = 1/x$, show that the resulting differential equation for z is linear.

Note: Remember, you may check the solutions in the lecture notes.

✓ Completed

Go to next item

Like

Dislike

Report an issue

