

How to contribute

You can contribute to this course by adding your notes, summaries, infographics, background or extra information to the course wiki. In the wiki you can collaborate with students to extend your own knowledge and that of your fellow learners. Please add only your own thoughts and ideas and your own graphical contributions, or make sure the work of others is referenced and checked for copyright. So if you want to add materials from external sources, please make sure the copyright allows you to share the material!

You can find the wiki here: <https://share.coursera.org/wiki/index.php/Basicstatistics:Main>
