1.00

Question Explanation

That's right. In fact, all of these tools and more will help the forums be of better use to you. Keep in mind that there are literally thousands of other students taking this class, so this is your chance to share ideas and dialog with other like-minded individuals.

Question 5

If I have a problem in the course I should:

Your AnswerScore*Explanation

☐ Drop the class

☐ Email the instructor

☒ Report it to the Learner Help Center (if the problem is technical) or to the Content Issues forum (if the problem is an error in the course materials).  1.00

☐ Call the instructor

Total
