Invertibility of the Eigenvector Matrix

Prove that if the columns of an n-by-n matrix are linearly independent, then the matrix is invertible. (A matrix whose columns are eigenvectors corresponding to distinct eigenvalues is therefore invertible.)

✓ Completed

Go to next item

👍 Like　　👎 Dislike　　⚑ Report an issue